

OUTCOMES.

We've done our research, and St. Thomas grads get jobs. Our graduates are going places, doing great things and contributing to society and the world. As you'll see, a St. Thomas education will not only help you prepare for your future, it'll help you create it.

Before graduation, more than

41%

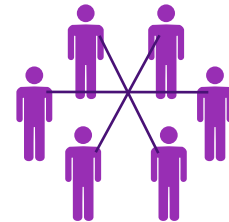

of graduating seniors had secured employment.

$44,000

Average starting salary of graduates

63%

of graduating seniors had an internship, many within five miles of campus.

Each spring hundreds of students and alumni connect through the Take a Tommie to Lunch program.

80-90

organizations interview on campus each year.

The St. Thomas Career Development Center helps students arrange hundreds of internships each year. It also provides resources such as job preparation seminars, job postings, mock interviews, job fairs and on-campus recruiting.

 of 2015 graduates

who responded to our survey were gainfully employed, enrolled in graduate school, working as volunteers or were enlisted in the military within six months of graduation.

The top interviewing companies that recruit St. Thomas students include: United States Armed Forces, 3M, Target, U.S. Bancorp, Best Buy, AmeriCorps, Fairview Health, CBRE, Ameriprise Financial, Ecolab and Thomson Reuters.
